- 2.2. No variation or addition to these terms and conditions shall be effective unless agreed in writing by a duly authorised officer of the seller.
- 2.3. No employee or agent of the seller is authorised to make any representations concerning goods on the seller's behalf unless such representations are confirmed in writing by the seller and any representations made without the written confirmation of the seller may not be relied upon in connection with any contract.
- 2.4. Until despatch of goods by the seller of goods to the buyer or the buyer's acceptance in writing of any quotation of the seller (whichever shall first occur) no contract for the sale of goods shall arise.
- 2.5. The seller shall be at liberty to correct without any liability on the seller's part and without prior notification any error or omission in any sales literature, price list, acceptance of offer, quotation, invoice, or other document issued by the seller.
- 2.6. The order shall only be deemed to have been accepted at either the earlier of the buyer accepting delivery of the goods or when the seller issues a written acceptance of the order at which point the contract shall come into existence.

3. Prices

- 3.1. The price for the goods shall be that on the seller's current price list unless otherwise confirmed and agreed in writing by the seller.
- 3.2. All prices are exclusive of VAT and charges for postage, packaging and carriage, all of which shall be paid in addition as agreed in writing.

Terms of Business

4. Payment

4.1. The seller is prepared to consider applications for credit accounts from corporate customers subject to approved references.

4.2. Non-credit account buyers must make payment in full of any invoice before despatch of goods.

4.3. Payment may be made by Bank Transfer, Cheque, Online Escrow or PayPal.

4.4. Buyers with credit accounts must make payment in full on the terms of credit agreed which shall not be more than from the end of the month following the date of invoice unless otherwise agreed in writing by the seller.

5. Interest on Overdue Invoices

5.1. If any invoice shall become overdue for payment interest shall be payable at 2% per annum above Barclays Bank plc base rate from time to time from the date the payment became due under the invoice until the date of payment. Such interest shall accrue both before and after any Judgment.

6. Delivery

6.1. The seller will take all reasonable steps to adhere to any estimated delivery date. The seller shall not be liable for any losses consequential or otherwise arising directly or indirectly out of any failure to meet an estimated delivery date. The seller reserves the right to make delivery in advance of the quoted delivery date on giving reasonable notice to the buyer.

6.2. Unless otherwise agreed in writing deliveries may take place at the buyer's premises or such premises as are designated by the buyer up until 6.00 p.m. on the date of delivery. In the event of the buyer not accepting delivery on the delivery date the first attempt at delivery is to be considered as the delivery date for the purpose of invoicing.

6.4. The method of despatch of all goods shall be at the seller's absolute discretion. OpalTec uses third-party couriers to deliver orders. During the Coronavirus Pandemic, non-contact handover has become necessary in most cases; physical signatures are no longer obtained either at collection from us or delivery to the shipping address. Third Party couriers combine driver-completed PoD with GPS data to confirm Proof of Delivery. This information can be obtained if necessary, but is only available for 90 days after delivery.

7.5. If before title to the goods passes to the buyer, the buyer becomes subject to any of the events listed in clause 7.7, or the seller reasonably believes that any such event is about to happen and notifies the buyer accordingly, then, provided that the goods have not been resold, or irrevocably incorporated into another product, and without limiting any other right or remedy the seller may have, the seller may at any time require the buyer to deliver up the goods and, if the buyer fails to do so promptly, enter any premises of the buyer or of any third party where the goods are stored in order to recover them.

7.6. If the buyer becomes subject to any of the events listed in clause 7.7, or the seller reasonably believes that the buyer is about to become subject to any of them and notifies the buyer accordingly, then, without limiting any other right or remedy available to the seller, the seller may cancel or suspend all further deliveries under the contract or under any other contract between the buyer and the seller without incurring any liability to the buyer, and all outstanding sums in respect of goods delivered to the buyer shall become immediately due.

(b) the buyer commences negotiations with all or any class of its creditors with a view to rescheduling any of its debts, or makes a proposal for or enters into any compromise or arrangement with its creditors other than (where the buyer is a company) where these events take place for the sole purpose of a scheme for a solvent amalgamation of the buyer with one or more other companies or the solvent reconstruction of the buyer;

(c) (being a company) a petition is filed, a notice is given, a resolution is passed, or an order is made, for or in connection with the winding up of the buyer, other than for the sole purpose of a scheme for a solvent amalgamation of the buyer with one or more other companies or the solvent reconstruction of the buyer;

- (l) (being an individual) the buyer dies or, by reason of illness or incapacity (whether mental or physical), is incapable of managing his or her own affairs or becomes a patient under any mental health legislation.

7.8. Termination of the contract, however arising, shall not affect any of the parties' rights and remedies that have accrued as at termination. Clauses which expressly or by implication survive termination of the contract shall continue in full force and effect.

7.9. Whilst the purchase price for any goods delivered to the buyer shall remain overdue for payment either wholly or in part without prejudice to any of its other rights the seller may recover and/or resell the goods or any of them and may enter on the buyer's premises by its servants or agents to recover the goods and shall be entitled to recover from the buyer any costs incurred in connection with such recovery.

7.10. Until payment for any goods has been made in full the buyer shall not pledge, charge by way of security or in any other way encumber the goods which remain the property of the seller.

A Force Majeure Event means any event beyond a party's reasonable control, which by its nature could not have been foreseen, or, if it could have been foreseen, was unavoidable, including without limitation strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disputes (whether involving its own workforce or a third party's), failure of energy sources or transport network, acts of God, war, terrorism, riot, civil commotion, interference by civil or military authorities, national or international calamity, armed conflict, malicious damage, breakdown of plant or machinery, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, sonic boom, explosions, collapse of building structures, fires, floods, storms, earthquakes, loss at sea, epidemics or similar events, natural disasters or extreme adverse weather conditions, or default of suppliers or subcontractors.
